

The Carabao Cup final took place this weekend between Man City and Chelsea. A strange situation occurred between Chelsea manager Maurizio Sarri and goalkeeper Kepa Arrizabalaga during extra time. What happened?

Watch footage of the situation by clicking here

What is meant by the word etiquette and how would you describe the etiquette shown by Kepa during this incident?

Why might arousal levels have had an effect on the incident?
Use theories of arousal to help your answer. How could Kepa and Sarri control their arousal/emotion in future?

How could the incident have an impact on football at a grassroots level?