

Women's Six Nations

According to the RFU's National Rugby Survey, 38% of women are now playing Rugby than before 2020. The Women's Six Nations would have played a part in this in the last few years.

What part does the media play in increasing participation rates in Women's Rugby?

What barriers do women still face that prevent them from participating in Rugby?

How has the Women's Six Nations helped increase the number of girls/women participating in Rugby?