Terms & Conditions

Customers will only be given access to the particular subscription package after payment has been received.

A recurring subscription can be created by ticking the designated box during online checkout.

The package highlighted in this quote enables logins for three members of staff. These members of staff must all be employees at the given school/college. If you require more than three logins then please get in touch via email in order to discuss this further.

All rights reserved - schools or individuals are not obliged to pass on resources to third parties (outside of their own department/pupils).

Schools and individuals are not obliged to use resources for any purpose, unless they are a current member of a particular subscription package.

We will be happy to supply any further information that you require in order to fulfil your order.
